

A hand-drawn illustration of a person with a large exclamation mark for a head, surrounded by hearts and squiggly lines, all enclosed in a circular frame. The drawing is done in a simple, sketchy style with brown outlines on a light background. The person's body is represented by a small circle and a wavy line for legs. There are two hearts on either side of the head, and several squiggly lines around the base of the figure. The entire scene is framed by a large, hand-drawn circle with a thick, textured border.
